

Lisa DeBartolo, from left, with her husband, Don Miggs and Lisa's mom, Candy DeBartolo at Party Like a Rock Star June 24, 2008 at the Hard Rock Hotel and Casino. Photos by Keith Lindquist.

Celebrating the launch of the Anti-Aging & Aesthetic Institute (a3), its founder, Dr. Lisbeth W. Roy, hosted a gala evening June 24 at Floyd's at the Seminole Hard Rock Hotel and Casino to benefit the DeBartolo Family Foundation. About 250 guests dressed in "rockstar chic" attended the event which was themed "Party Like a Rockstar." The event featured current and former professional athletes, including Wade Boggs, Jeb Terry, Michael Clayton, Gary Puckett, several players from the Tampa Bay Storm and others. There was also a special performance by MIGGS, whose current release, "I Believe," is on the charts and their new album, Unraveled, was released last month.

"Our search for a meaningful local cause we could support as we take our business to the next level was an easy one," said Dr. Roy. "Through its Spirit of Humanity Award for charities and other wonderful initiatives, the DeBartolo Family Foundation has become a leader in our community in enhancing the quality of life here for everyone. We are honored to be able to support them."

Guests enjoyed heavy hors d'oeuvres and an open bar while helping to raise $53,000 for the foundation by participating in an auction with jewelry by NicoleKhristine, couture handbag from Jimmy Choo, a luxury Costa Rica villa vacation, a Las Vegas vacation, Lisa DeBartolo & Don Miggs Super Bowl Party and Pre-Game Party tickets, luxury items from Neiman Marcus, Saks Fifth Avenue, Suitcase, the Anti-Aging & Aesthetic Institute and others.

The DeBartolo Family Foundation is a not-for-profit corporation created by the members of the Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. family to benefit local communities. It annually awards scholarships to high school students, provides grants to individuals and organizations with exceptional requirements, and presents the Spirit of Humanity Award honoring non-profit, grass roots organizations that provide extraordinary assistance to Tampa Bay residents with special needs.

Don Migs at Party Like a Rock Star.

Rachel Ferguson, from left, with Dianna Vajda, Kimberly Eschelman and Ron Weaver.