DEBARTOLO FAMILY FOUNDATION PROVIDES $18,000 IN FINANCIAL GRANTS TO LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS

Tampa, Fl. (August 9, 2007) – The DeBartolo Family Foundation today announced $18,000 in grants through its community funding program. This program, established in 2001, provides financial support to help organizations that applied for special assistance through the Foundation. Financial grants are provided twice annually. A group of six (6) humanitarian, medical research, healthcare and childcare organizations, within the Tampa Bay community, were funded in today’s announcement.

2007 Spring/Summer DeBartolo Family Foundation Grant Recipients:

- Crown & Glory Ministries
- Excelsior Education and Training Foundation
- Kathy’s Place, A Center for Grieving Children
- Resource Center for Women, Inc.
- Suncoast Harvest Food Bank, Inc.
- The Aids Institute Inc.

“On behalf of the entire DeBartolo family and the DeBartolo Family Foundation, it is with great sincerity that we recognize these dedicated and caring organizations for their tireless contributions to society.” said Lisa DeBartolo, Executive Vice President DeBartolo Holdings. “Each of these extraordinary groups and individuals exemplifies the mission of our family and Foundation...of which is to provide unwavering support, hope and the financial resources to deserving organizations within our communities.”
